

WHAT IS EMOTION RECOGNITION?

Emotion recognition is the ability of a computer to identify and interpret human emotions based on data such as facial expressions, voice, and body language

Why it matters?

Marketing

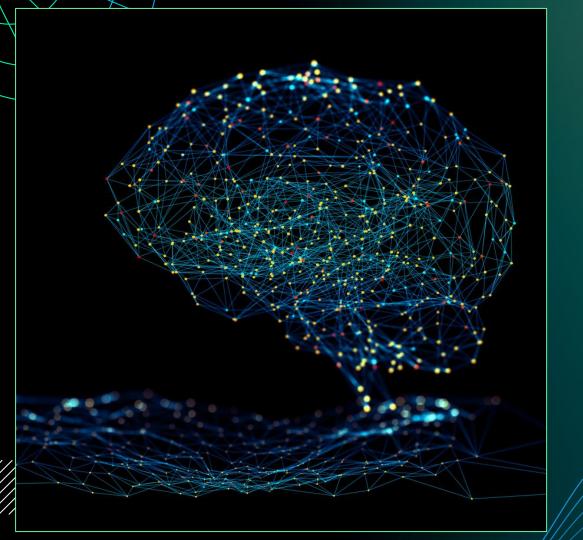

There are two main limitations:

- Cultures
- Races

Data Collection and Preprocessing

Also, the quality of the data affects the accuracy of the prediction.

Real time video

Multiple faces

My accuracy

14.2%

Min accuracy

HOW TO INCREASE ACCURACY?

